

EATING DISORDERS COULD FITNESS BE A SOLUTION?

oxygen

ROBERT KENNEDY'S
WOMEN'S FITNESS

Win Our

FAT LOSS CHALLENGE

and lose the last 10 pounds for good

LOOK GREAT AT ANY AGE

How cover girl Elaine Goodlad stays fabulously fit at 39

10 Fail-Proof Beauty Secrets LISTEN UP!

Wanna make chocolate chip cookies part of your high-protein diet?

CHECK OUT THESE LOW-CARB COMFORT FOODS

GET abs

-OLUTELY FABULOUS

with 6 new six-pak shapers

Fat-Proof Your COOKOUTS
PG. 96

JULY 2003 US $3.99 CAN $5.99

Display until 8/1/03

www.oxygenmag.com

Stacey Cravens

AGE: 31 HEIGHT: 5-foot-5 WEIGHT: 113 lb HOMETOWN: Manchester, TN YEARS TRAINING: 6

BACKGROUND: ESPN Fitness America National Champion 2001, 1st in the 2001 Fitness America ESPN Series, 1st in the 2001 Fitness America Midwest, 1st in the 2001 Fitness America Atlanta regional, former University of Tennessee cheerleader, 4-time Collegiate All-American.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT: Stacey has a very competitive background in gymnastics, but she didn't make the gymnastics team the first year she tried out. "This set a fire under me that has lasted a lifetime," Stacey says. "Sometimes negative experiences can be motivators, as well as positives!"